Under their own Construction of the general Clause at the End of the enumerated Powers The Congresomon grant monopoles in rade & Commerce, constitute new Crimes, in affect unusually severe punishments, and extend their power as far as they shall think proper; so that the State Socialatures have no Security for the Bovers now precumed to remain to them, or the Deople for their highls. There is no Declaration of any hind for preserving the Liberty of the Dwels, the Tryal by and in cont laused: no abainst the Lancer of Manding Armies in une of weath.
The State Legislatures are restrained from laying Export Duties on their own produce.
The general Segislature is restrained from prohibiting the further Importation of Haves for twenty odd years; the such Importations render the United States weather more wednestable, and less capable of Defence.
Both the general Segislature & the State Segislatures are expressly prohibited maken ex post facto Laws; the there never was or can be a Legislature but must & will make such Laws, when necessity of the public Safety require them; which will hereafter be a Breach full the Constitutions in the Union, and afford precedents for other Innovations.
This government will commence in a moderate Aristocracy; it is at prese impossible to foresce whether it will, in it's Operation, produce a Monarchy, or the two, and then terminate in one or the other.
